Places to visit

From big city shopping to picturesque village life, Studley Castle is surrounded by some of the best places to visit in Warwickshire.

Ranging from Shakespeare's birthplace to the modern, urban style of Birmingham (and everything in between), the towns and cities of our local area represent some of the best and most varied destinations in the local area.

Things to do

Taking in National Trust destinations, castles, gardens and a working farm made famous by Countryfile, we're incredibly lucky that Studley Castle is surrounded by some of the best things to do in Warwickshire. The parks and farms are flush with wildlife while the nearby stately homes are steeped in history – and the gardens and marble fountain at Kenilworth Castle are certainly one of the most picturesque tourist spots Warwickshire has to offer.

We've partnered with ViewRanger to create walking and cycling routes for all levels of ability – tap here for more info.

THE BEST OF OUR GROUNDS AND GARDENS

Our lawns, gardens, woodland walks and views out over the Warwickshire countryside are a big part of what makes Studley Castle special. We asked our team to pick the three best features of our grounds, and this is what they came up with:

Wild flower meadow

Our own little patch of wilderness – when the wild flower meadow is in full bloom it creates a symphony of colours and smells to delight your senses. Even when it's not in bloom, this is still a lovely little patch of nature.

Pashley bikes

There's no better way to explore Studley than on one of our Pashley bicycles. Founded in 1926 in Stratford-upon-Avon, these locally built cycles are sturdy and beautiful, a truly traditional English cycling experience.

Formal lawn

With panoramic views overlooking the Heart of England Forest and the backdrop of Studley Castle, the formal lawn is the perfect location to enjoy a picnic on a blanket – or head up to the seating area and order a wee tippie from our bar.

TOWNS AND CITIES

Whether you're looking to spend a day shopping in the big city or browsing the antique stores and tea rooms of the Cotswolds, Studley Castle is surrounded by some of the country's finest tourist destinations for all tastes.

The villages of the Cotswolds

You could spend a week visiting every village in the Cotswolds (it's an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty after all) but we recommend Broadway, Stow-on-the-Wold and Bourton-on-the-Water for their abundance of pubs, tea rooms, and views that roll on for miles.

Birmingham City

England's second city is a hive of activity, with its bustling Bull Ring, network of canals, tram system, national sea life centre, cafés, restaurants and art gallery, famous for its pre-Raphaelite pieces. Whether you're going for the shopping, the history, or just a spot of sightseeing, there's lots to do.

Worcester City

The cathedral city of Worcester lies on the River Severn, and is also known for its world-famous Worcester porcelain, historic relevance and, of course, Worcestershire sauce. With a vibrant high street, civil war museums and contemporary art galleries, there's plenty for visitors to explore.

COUNTRY PARKS AND FARMS

There's nowhere better to enjoy the great outdoors than Warwickshire (in our slightly biased opinion anyway). Our local country parks encompass woodland, parkland, serene lakes and diverse wildlife.

Waseley Hills Country Park

Waseley Hills is almost as big as Disneyland, and its hilly parkland takes in pastures, hedgerows and small pockets of woodland, all set against a panoramic backdrop of the Worcestershire countryside.

Arrow Valley Country Park

At 900 acres (bigger than New York's Central Park), Arrow Valley is the largest open space in Redditch. At its heart is Arrow Valley Lake, popular for sailing, fishing and birdwatching. The visitors centre is open most days for tea, coffee and food.

Lickey Hills Country Park

The Green Flag-awarded Lickey Hills covers woodland, heathland and grassland, with 380 species of flowering plants. This combination of habitats leads to a wonderfully diverse range of wildlife for you to spot, from songbirds and sparrowhawks to, somewhat surprisingly, lizards and grass snakes.

Worcester Woods Country Park

With two nature reserves, a giant open field, and two level woodland trails, Worcester Woods is ideal for fans of birds, flowers, footpaths... and coffee. The Orchard Cafe has a tasty, seasonal menu, primarily stocked by locally sourced, sustainable and Fair Trade ingredients.

Hill Close Gardens Trust

Formed of 16 Victorian pleasure gardens set on the Warwickshire hillside, this unique attraction offers a fascinating glimpse into the 19th century. Each plot was owned by a different gardener, so they all have their own personalities and quirks.

Cotswolds Farm Park

Owned by Countryfile's Adam Henson, the working farm includes a rare breeds trail, animal barn, wildlife walk, and viewing platforms – at 1,000 feet above sea level, these platforms offer some of the best 360-degree views in the region.

STATELY HOMES AND GARDENS

Warwickshire and the surrounding counties are dotted with stately homes from days gone by, offering a glimpse into the history of the upper classes. Most are surrounded by expansive gardens, making them the perfect summer's day out.

Kenilworth Castle and Elizabethan Gardens

First constructed in the early 1120s by Geoffrey de Clinton, Kenilworth Castle has gone from medieval fortress to Elizabethan palace to its current state as a Grade I listed building, surrounded by a beautifully recreated Elizabethan garden with marble fountain and ornate aviary.

Morton Hall Gardens

The gardens of Morton Hall have been designed as a succession of garden 'rooms', each with its own unique character, planting style, colour scheme and landscape. They're set on a fairly steep embankment, but with almost 1,000 plant varieties to see it's well worth a visit.

VIEWRANGER AT STUDLEY CASTLE

What is ViewRanger?

ViewRanger is one of the world's leading digital exploring guides, available for all Apple and Android devices, that lets you explore local areas on foot or by bike like never before. We've joined forces to provide a few routes around our hotels and villages for all levels of fitness. With ViewRanger you can follow the map with or without a data connection, with viewpoints, interesting attractions and helpful advice along the way.

How do I download ViewRanger?

It couldn't be simpler!

- 1 Go to your phone or tablet's app store
- 2 Search for "ViewRanger" and download "ViewRanger - Hiking Trails & Bike Rides" by Augmentra
- 3 Use the below web address or scan the QR code and it'll open up with our selection of routes for Studley Castle (it's up to you whether to create an account, although we do recommend it).

How do I get going?

Simply tap the signpost button in the top left corner of the app and select your chosen route. You can do this from the starting point or back at the hotel, and you can even download the route so there's no need to use up your data allowance while you're wandering.

All of the routes are self-guided so that you can do them at a time and pace that suits you. Here are a few tips to help you enjoy your adventure:

- Check the weather and be prepared with wet weather gear, or a coat, hat and maybe sunscreen when necessary
- Wear sensible shoes or walking boots, most of our routes are on well-worn paths, tracks, trails or woodland and pastoral land. There might be some muddy areas, gates or stiles to cross
- Pack a bottle of water, not all routes have a café or pub en-route
- Capture the beautiful countryside with your camera
- Take your mobile phone just in case of emergency
