We first visited Warner ten years ago and were so delighted that we've made it a yearly tradition. Everything's here – you don't even need the car keys. Most hotels don't do dinner and entertainment and pools as part of the price, all under one roof. We just love it and now always book for seven nights so it's really relaxing.

MR AND MRS HOSKIN, PLYMOUTH

Make the most of midweeks.

Four-night autumn and winter breaks include music festivals, a hint of early festive fun and live music and shows.

From just £339 per person

Complete we've-thought-of-everything staycations

From Victorian castles to manors with star-studded pasts, a stay with Warner is the road less travelled. We don't follow the crowds. We do out-of-the-way corners of the country. We don't do just a room for the night. We include signature dishes, nightly live music and shows, pools, cinemas and activities in the price. And we don't do it for everyone. It's uniquely for adults, filled to overflowing with genuine friendly service and all those little treats that come together, piece by piece, to make a holiday a holiday.

And the journey with us? It's about sharing our passion for coastal locations with sea views and centuries-old buildings, imaginatively restyled with 21st century comfort. Seeing us as a steppingstone to connect with local people and places but as a sanctuary too with beautiful grounds and so many ways to unwind within very exclusive grounds.

Tranquil places and party spaces

Whether it's in the fold of the countryside or enjoying the breeze by the coast, every castle, manor and Warner village delivers great lungfuls of fresh air and high-definition views.

Moving into the chillier months means a whole new layer of peace and quiet. As the landscapes empty of holidaymakers and school children they refill with the coppers and crimsons of autumn and on to winter's calm. Perfect for leaf-kicking strolls, footprint-free beaches and woodland, crisp underfoot. Maybe pootling around market towns and cathedral cities, at their quietest midweek. Then back inside, toasty with a glass of red by a log fire, comfort food, nicely warmed pools and some heat in the sauna.

For every day that channels the easygoing, every night ups the tempo. The chatter gets louder as gin and wine tastings beckon. The bars start to buzz. Bands, shows, DJs and comics shut the door on the darker nights. It's time for some dancing.

It gets five stars from us. We love the comfort of Studley Castle, upmarket but not stuffy and with its own charm. We can have days in enjoying table tennis and laser clay and a facial or days out before coming back to an excellent menu and entertainment.”

MR AND MRS APPLEBY, NEWARK

Acres of space for everyone

- Desirable country and coastal addresses
- Over 800 acres of private grounds and gardens – that’s 73 Wembley Stadiums
- Local cycle trails and verified walks, easy to follow with the free ViewRanger app
- Bars and lounges exclusive to hotel guests
- Purpose-built show theatres and dance floors
- Warner Explorer guides, refreshed for autumn and winter, highlight all the local must-dos

Winter all wrapped up

Whether it’s a romantic gesture, that catch-up with loved ones, or ‘let’s just pack now and go’, some of the best midweek breaks this winter are hiding in plain sight.

MARTINIS & Mistletoe

Enjoy a winter pick-me-up including a celebration dinner with a festive twist, visiting artists, NEW candlelight quartets and more

From just £279 per person

Three-night weekends and two-night and four-night midweek breaks throughout November and December.

Sir Robert's Sitting Room, Holme Lacy House

A great foodie hang-out

Warner and great dining go together like eggs and bacon, cod and chips, a roast joint and Yorkshire puddings, apple tart and custard. So much so in fact that all the classic British combinations are weaved through the daily menu and beautifully presented with table service. There's no need to lift a finger. In tune with the changing season too, October sees the appearance of autumnal flavours and belly-warming slow bakes, and always with the invitation to ask for more.

NEW

In another blossoming partnership, the winter months bring tea tasting experiences to the historic hotels courtesy of Smiths of London, a family business that's been creating Fairtrade speciality coffees and teas since 1936. New craft cocktails designed for the colder evenings also offer a little arm candy. A winter berry martini or salted caramel Baileys hot chocolate anyone?

Leisure Lounge, Sinah Warren

TURKEY & TINSEL

Breaks in the countryside and within skimming distance of the sea (just imagine those views) capture all the merriment and traditions of Christmas and New Year's Eve rolled in to one.

A dress rehearsal before the big event, themed breaks start the festivities early by majoring on great plates of food and sparkling shows – lots of laughs too with a team panto.

From just £219 per person

Three-night weekends and four-night midweek breaks throughout November and December.

These breaks give me freedom. I love the quizzes, the dancing, walk in the grounds, tours and I always book a massage. And I love the shows. What would Warner be without them? It's altogether a neat little package.”

MRS BURRELL, MARKET HARBOROUGH

Recipe for happiness

On top of eats and drinks in exclusive settings, every stay delivers a heap of natural goodness to feed mind and soul. Complimentary tours of the ground and gardens – they all have a story to tell – and activities such as archery, Nordic walking and laser clay take it outside for getting active (but not too much).

Indoors, the pools are open early for casual lengths, maybe paired with the sauna and steam room or a luxurious Temple Spa skincare and top-to-toe treatment by a skilled therapist.

NEW

New and refurbished lounges offer some space and quiet. A glass or two of you-time in a cosy corner. Reconnecting with friends and family over leisurely lunches. Joining a quiz or being spoilt with afternoon tea while catching the waves roll in or the fields roll away. This is how to master doing very little on an inviting few days without the kids.

Wellness retreats

The perfect reset for mind, body and soul with yoga and meditation workshops, Tai Chi, pilates and workouts in peaceful country estates.

Studley Castle, 3-6 September and Thoresby Hall, 24-27 September. Numbers strictly limited! warnerhotels.co.uk/wellnessretreat

Party nights, bands, DJs and festivals

Showtime is one of the hallmarks of Warner with relaxed days rolling into acoustic sets before dinner and on towards late and lively nights of music, dancing and drinks from the bar. Custom-built show theatres at the heart of every hotel host visiting bands, royalty from stage and screen, comics, dancers, DJs and intimate ‘in conversation with’ evenings. So too are the hotel teams renowned for their talent and versatility, belting out evergreen classics from the West End, Miss Saigon to Les Mis, and connecting with the audience through costumed and choreographed performances.

NEW

The end of the year and early 2022 bring an even bigger clutch of festivals designed exclusively for adults, while brand-new Star Breaks fuel the VIP vibe. This is a rare opportunity to enjoy reserved seats at a private gig. World class entertainers will never get any closer.

Christmas and New Year 2021

Wise men (but mostly women) always plan early for the festive season. Unmistakeably sparkly and crammed with long-held traditions, it's the highlight of the Warner year, and always a sell-out.

The 12 Warner ways of Christmas

1 Martinis & Mistletoe

Romance with lantern-lit garden strolls, celebration dinners, festive movies, choirs and big shows.

2 Turkey & Tinsel

A dress rehearsal for the main event with all the best bits of Christmas and New Year.

3 Feasts

Mince pies and traditional fayre with all the trimmings, plus New Year's Eve gala dinners.

4 Afternoon tea

with a festive twist, naughty and nice.

5 Golden cocktails

such as winter berry martinis, snowballs and salted caramel Baileys hot chocolate.

6 Wrapping up warm

for crisp garden strolls, then back to crackling fires in lounges or fire pits on the terrace with blankets to beat the brrr.

7 The halls are decked

and the Christmas trees dressed.

8 Shopping!

Return coach trips to Christmas markets.

9 Lords a'leaping

in team shows, plus early evening acoustic sets, visiting artists, bands, DJs on stage and bagpipes on New Year's Eve.

10 Food and drink demos

with cocktail masterclasses, gin tastings and canape how-tos.

11 Panto

Little Red Riding Hood – oh yes it is.

12 Quizzes

and crackers.

Ice balls

Pure spectacle with pop-up performers and strolling characters bringing the drama and celebratory feasts and bands fuelling the party fire. On selected Saturday nights or Thursday on a midweek break.

Candlelight quartets

Enchanting settings, softly lit, provide the backdrop for concerts by visiting musical ensembles.
