Littlecote House Hotel & Berkshire

Places to visit

Berkshire is home to a unique collection of places to visit, including shopping trips, horse racing, ancient monuments and... Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry? Lacock village, just one of our places to visit in Berkshire, is a planned town that has been used for the Harry Potter films thanks to its olde worlde feel. Or travel far back in time and visit the Neolithic stone circle at Avebury, steeped in ancient magic and mystery.

Things to do

The ancient houses of Blenheim Palace, Ashdown House and Highclere Castle, represent some of the best things to do in Berkshire, boasting a wealth of history, expansive gardens, and of course now popular as the home of Downton Abbey too. With acres of open space to explore and a millennia of human activity to discover, these houses are perfect for a day out whatever the weather.

We've partnered with ViewRanger to create walking and cycling routes for all levels of ability – tap here for more info.

THE BEST OF OUR GROUNDS AND GARDENS

Littlecote House has been inhabited through Roman times, the Tudor age, World War II and beyond. With so much history it's easy to find something interesting without leaving our grounds, and our team have picked out three of their favourite things to see nearby:

Roman mosaic

Just a short walk from the hotel door you'll find the remains of the Roman villa at Littlecote. It dates back to 360AD and at its heart is the intricate Orpheus Mosaic, sheltered from the elements under a wooden roof.

Kitchen gardens

First planted in the 16th century to provide culinary and medicinal supplies (as well as provide a home for friendly bees), these gardens are surrounded by historic walls and feature a Victorian greenhouse.

Ice House and woodland walk

Make sure you've got your walking shoes on – the atmospheric woodland walk can often get a little muddy, but brave it and you'll be rewarded with a look at the 17th century Ice House, once used to supply the house and store food.

PARKS AND STATELY HOMES

The parks, woods and lakes that surround Littlecote House make for a fantastic day out, and intrepid explorers can even make their way to Downton Abbey (otherwise known as Highclere Castle) or Blenheim Palace to enjoy a taste of the high life.

Lydiard Park

Expansive parkland, two lakes, pockets of woodland, a six-section Georgian walled garden with fruit trees and colourful flowers, Lydiard Park is as big as 200 football pitches and home to roe deer, badgers, woodpeckers and tawny owls (amongst others).

Cotswold Water Park

Stretching out over 40 square miles (that's as big as 250 Vatican Cities) with 14 individual nature reserves and 170 lakes, this is a birdwatcher's paradise. 20,000 waterfowl winter in the park, often taking to flight en masse if one of the local peregrine falcons is hunting.

Blenheim Palace and Gardens

Built in the early 1700s during the short-lived English Baroque architectural period, Blenheim Palace's extensive grounds include the Formal Gardens with their majestic water terraces, private Italian garden, rose garden and more, as well as the beautiful lake and famous Grand Bridge.

Ashdown House

A 17th century Dutch-style house on the edge of Oxfordshire (it was officially ‘moved’ from Berkshire in 1974), much of the house is off-limits due to its tenant (Pete Townshend of ‘The Who’ fame), but the gardens and nearby Ashdown Woods provide walking routes with panoramic views of the countryside.

We've joined forces to provide a few routes around our hotels and villages for all levels of fitness. With ViewRanger you can follow the map with or without a data connection, with viewpoints, interesting attractions and helpful advice along the way.

How do I download ViewRanger?

It couldn't be simpler!

- 1 Go to your phone or tablet's app store
- 2 Search for "ViewRanger" and download "ViewRanger - Hiking Trails & Bike Rides" by Augmentra
- 3 Use the below web address or scan the QR code and it'll open up with our selection of routes for Littlecote House Hotel (it's up to you whether to create an account, although we do recommend it).

How do I get going?

Simply tap the signpost button in the top left corner of the app and select your chosen route. You can do this from the starting point or back at the hotel, and you can even download the route so there's no need to use up your data allowance while you're wandering.

All of the routes are self-guided so that you can do them at a time and pace that suits you. Here are a few tips to help you enjoy your adventure:

- Check the weather and be prepared with wet weather gear, or a coat, hat and maybe sunscreen when necessary
- Wear sensible shoes or walking boots, most of our routes are on well-worn paths, tracks, trails or woodland and pastoral land. There might be some muddy areas, gates or stiles to cross
- Pack a bottle of water, not all routes have a café or pub en-route
- Capture the beautiful countryside with your camera
- Take your mobile phone just in case of emergency
